

CORPORATE COMPANION PROGRAM

Volume 3

Jocelyn's Romance

Good morning Josie how was your weekend?

It was great sir I went to party with a few friends Friday night and didn't make it home till Sunday afternoon.

Anybody I know this time.

Probably not sir, you know how it is a girl's gotta have fun.

I was looking over your profile in the new Sadie Hawkins App and it certainly looks like there's going to be a lot of fun going on for the lucky guys you pick to date.

I know, I'm really looking forward to it. I already sent out my first date request. This is my chance to bag some of those studs that I used to consider off limits.

Why was that?

I didn't want to get myself or anybody else in trouble so I was always afraid that late nights with coworkers could be seen as having a negative impact on the company.

Now with the new CCP you certainly don't have to worry about that anymore.

I know, my first request was to this guy over in Finance, he's such a hunk I just about cream my panties every time I see him.

I'm really glad your embracing the new system Josie, but it's time to get to work.

Yes sir I'm almost finished with the Jefferson proposal, I'll have it on your desk before lunch.

Very good, I don't know what I'd do without you.

Thank you sir, it makes it easy when you have such a great boss.

Hi Brad, I'm Josie and I've so been looking forward to this

Hey I was glad to get the invite and may I say you look smoking tonight.

Thanks, a girl tries.

Would you like a drink?

Sure than maybe we could head someplace more intimate.

Sounds great, my place OK.

Sure, if you can get me to work by 7:45 maybe you can feed me breakfast.

Consider it done, drink up and let's get the hell out of here.

Ready when you are.

Nice car Brad, man you are the total package, why hasn't some girl already claimed you?

Hey slow down I'm still sowing my wild oats so to speak.

No I totally hear you, just curious, I'm playing the field myself. I mean how can you just pick one with so many choices out there.

Cool, had me going there for a minute. You know most girls don't think like you do.

Their loss, is this it.

Yeah, my humble abode.

Everybody's got to start somewhere, speaking of which you wanna start with my zipper, no time to waste on work nights.

Josie.

Yes boss.

Lunch time. Pick me up a burger at Fat Jack's would you.

Sure thing Mr. Lewis.

Hey I read your date survey, outstanding. I'm guessing that's the same dress you wore last night.

Well yeah he brought me into work from his place.

OK, but in the future Jocelyn take a change with you on your dates I want you fresh in the office.

Yes sir, I should've thought of that, it won't happen again.

See that it doesn't

Um, Fat Jack's still does the best burger in town.

Yes sir Virgil's is good but Fat Jack's is the best.

I looked over that proposal and noted some changes but overall good work.

Thank you sir.

Get it cleaned up and ready to present tomorrow morning. Now give how many times you cum last night?

Well it certainly sounds like another spectacular fuck for both of you.

No complaints here boss.

Got another one lined up yet?

Yeah but it's not till Thursday, Fred Mercer he works in the mailroom.

Jocelyn nice to meet you let's go.

Um sure, you can call me Josie, are you sure an amusement park Fred. I kinda thought maybe we could do something more uh private.

Josie it is, look babe sure you've probably done it in bed, the couch, hell who knows where, but you ever done it in the funhouse, the tunnel of love?

Shit you wanna... at the park on the rides, what a fuckin blast, I'm in let's go.

Um god it's so tight in... giggle... if we could get that restraining bar up a little.

Shh... those people in the back are staring.

Let em stare Fred they're just jealous.

Oh my god you can see... ugh... the whole ugh park from ugh.

Shut up Josie I'm... trying... to... con...cen...trate... here.

Fred thanks again for maybe the best date ever. I've never had so much fun at an amusement park, not even when I was little.

Girl you are one fine tight bitch, I'd invite you back to my place if hadn't already worn me down to a nub.

Alright this is my place, let me get the bag out of your trunk.

About that what's up with the bag, toys?

No, Monday night I stayed over and my boss wants me clean and fresh in the office, so now I carry a change just in case.

Smart you never know how the night will turn out. You're my second date too the first one was OK but after tonight I must say I'm loving this new program. How about you?

I used to party anytime on my weekends that was free, but yeah so far this is great. See you around.

Josie, why are you on your phone on my time.

Sorry boss I was just checking what Fred put on the App about our date.

OK that's alright but you know you can use your workstation for that, it's authorized.

Yes sir I know but I just don't want to get into bad habits.

Probably a wise choice. I already checked an amusement park?

I know that was what I thought when he told me. Boy was I wrong, let me tell you about the tunnel of love and him in the tunnel of love in the tunnel of love.

Wow and the two of you on the... how is that even possible.

It isn't easy but where there's a will there's a way.

So there I am hanging onto the rail of the basket on this skyhook ride and I can see the whole park and all these tiny people down on the ground. The basket is rocking like hell on the cable while he's pounding me so good...

Well girl, never a dull moment on your dates. The missus is definitely going to get a thorough seeing to tonight.

You may be the only one tonight boss. After the rides on the rides I think the equipment might need a night off. Who ever knew that coworkers could be so much fun.

Enjoy your weekend, there's a new project coming my way next week so this may be the last free weekend you get for a while Josie. I don't know for sure but the word on the grapevine is that this going to be a big one and time sensitive.

Sure thing boss the job always comes first.

Jerry are we really going to do this?

So how did the new program work out for you Ozzie, he looked at his friend Osgood.

Well I got to go on a couple of dates, it was pretty cool.

You get laid?

No but it'll happen I mean it has to right.

The girls that invited you were they hot?

Hey most of the Sindan girls are hot... but OK these weren't ugly or anything but no not hot.

For Sindan the two dates I went on were skanks and I didn't even get any offers until Saturday and Sunday.

But man Jerry we could get fired for this.

So look we'll just do my girl first and if it doesn't work out than I get all the heat.

OK I guess, have you picked anybody out yet?

Oh man check this out, he pulled up a profile picture from the SH App, Jocelyn Clutter she works as secretary for Herbert Lewis.

She's got to be like a 10 Jerry, man we should start out with someone less um popular. I mean look at her first 2 dates she's going to be one of the most wanted dates around.

That's the beauty of this whole setup Ozzie she has to make the date invites so all any of the other guys in the company will know is that she didn't invite them. Then after awhile anyone paying attention will see that she settled on me and is using all of her invites on me. When the company set the system up part of the calculation was that there are around twice as many single female employees as male, so everyone will still be getting their dates.

Jocelyn how was your weekend?

Great boss, gotta tell you though it took me till Saturday night to recover from Thursday.

Good, you know your going to have to pay the price sometime as hard as you party.

I know but it's just so much fun sir, I don't get people that just sit around all the time.

You're young, trust me down the road you'll reach a place where you'll value some peace and quiet. Maybe not all the time but at least sometimes.

I guess, I mean I know you must be right boss but it sure doesn't feel like it right now.

Enough idleness for us Josie, what do we have on our plates today?

OK sir, Mr. Keaton called with some questions about the Endicott deal and HR sent up a memo regarding...

What is it Josie?

Sir interoffice mail just came in and there is a big package here for you. I think it may be that new project you were talking about.

Sounds right bring it in.

Right away.

Yes this is it, interesting so the powers that be are finally going to give Bonner's brainchild a try. OK Josie this is going to be an all hands on deck project. Hope you enjoyed the last weekend girl because your going to be 7 days a week for at least the next couple of months and maybe more.

Oh well the price of being a company girl sir. At least I still have the date nights from the new App.

Speaking of which have you got the next one lined up yet?

No and it's kind of weird I've sent out a couple invites and they both turned me down.

Hi, you must be Jerry, I'm Jocelyn.

Hello Jocelyn it's nice to meet you.

Yes well you wanted to go out to dinner tonight.

I thought that would be nice that maybe we could get to know each other before taking things any further. I don't want us to just jump right into the sack like you did with all those other guys.

Yeah well I don't think you have to worry about that Jerry.

It's a nice place isn't it, I know you like to be called Josie but I prefer Jocelyn.

No really only my parents or my boss ever call me Jocelyn and only when I'm in trouble.

Well that's actually good, this way it will be special for us.

Whatever, but I've got to tell you Jerry I don't see any us in the future this is just a one time thing.

While were on the subject of names you will call me Jeremy, Jerry is fine for friends and acquaintances but you need to show me the kind of respect that's due to your other half.

Look you seem to have the wrong idea here Jerry, I'm sorry this didn't work out. Thanks for the dinner and I'm sure you'll find someone out there that's better suited for you.

You're leaving, don't you care about your date review.

My date reviews are fine, my boss isn't going to care about one date and frankly you're kind of creepy dude. Just a word of advice you might want to tone it down in the future you'll probably have better luck if you don't come off as some kind of control freak stalker wanna be.

Well we'll certainly have to address this behavior in the future, be seeing you soon Jocelyn.

Josie my office please.

Yes boss right away.

What the hell happened last night, I read that you were rude, wouldn't even use his full name and cut the date short even though he was just trying to get to know you.

Mr. Lewis it's all true but you know me and this guy was a real freak, he creeped me out. I had to settle for him in the first place when everybody else I asked kept saying no. Then we go to this restaurant and he's all you'll call me Jeremy and I'll call you Jocelyn and acting like we were going to be a couple and not just two people looking to have a good time on a one time thing.

OK, Josie one bad review is no big deal and I do know you. I'm sure your next date will have nothing but praise for you once he recovers enough to write. I've got to warn you though don't let this become a thing especially with this project on our hands we can't afford to let any outside issues become a problem and interfere with the work.

No sweat sir, after this fiasco I can't wait to rock some guys world.

Glad to hear it, now did you get that data on the...

Well let's call it a night girl. Do you have another date set up yet, I've got to say that it's a little frustrating having to plan the work around the nights you need free for your dates, but policy is policy and the company is always right.

No sir, I'm sorry but I'm still getting a lot of negative responses. I never thought that this could be a problem I've never had trouble getting dates before in my life.

Well just keep trying if worst comes to worst the system will always get you a random date on Sunday. If you do end up with a weekend date I still expect you to put in an early morning working on the project so don't agree to anything before the afternoon.

Yes sir, I understand Mr. Lewis the project comes first.

You again, the system said a random date but out of all the single guys in the company how could I have ended up with you again.

It must just be fate Jocelyn.

Look I'm sorry about what happened last time and we both know that this isn't going to work so how about if we just call it a night and give each other a pass on this one OK?

No Jocelyn if you want that satisfactory date review you're going to have work for it. So I expect you to be civil, forthcoming and show me a good time.

Well um... what the heck sure do you have a place I could use a good time myself it's been all week after our other date.

No, no baby. I didn't mean with your body, of course that will come later but right now I want us to become closer more intimate first. I know you've fucked all those other guys but you haven't really been intimate with any of them have you. Our relationship is going to be different.

Come on Jerry, I mean Jeremy, I'm sure you're a good guy but were just not right for each other. I'll tell you what I know some other secretaries you'd like I'll get one of them to invite you out on date, cool?

Jocelyn you've got to stop fighting this us being here tonight should show you that it's fate for us to be together.

Look Jeremy I've got a big project at work and I don't want my boss distracted by this whole dating program thing, so if you don't want sex what do you want?

I just want to talk tonight Jocelyn, I want you to tell me all the things your guy should know, when was your first time, your first kiss, had any abortions, have you had sex with girls, everything that your lover should know.

Are you sure we can't just have sex?

Just start talking babe...

Yes boss it was him again.

Well did you finally sleep with him?

I offered but he just wanted to talk.

Really, this better not end up with another bad review I warned you.

It better not sir, it was more like an interrogation than a conversation and the things he wanted to know.

Such as.

God it was so humiliating boss, my first kiss, first everything basically and at the end he made me describe my fantasies to him. Do you have any idea how humiliating that is for a woman boss.

No I can't say that I do Josie, as long as you did whatever it took to keep this from turning into an issue.

Well you looked it up already sir what did he say?

He hasn't posted yet and we've wasted enough time on this. I have some questions about those numbers on the...

OK girl I think we can call it a night and try to get somebody more energetic I miss the after action reports girl, remember I'm living vicariously through you so go out there and get some.

See you tomorrow sir, I'll give it my best shot, I'm getting tired of appliances too.

Jerry how was your second date with Jocelyn? Did you nail her?

It's way too early for that Ozzie, but it went very well I made her bare a good portion of her soul to me. You have to know what makes someone tick if you truly plan to own them buddy.

What's up for her on date 3.

Sorry no telling Ozzie, that would ruin the surprise.

Well I hope you get to some juicy parts soon.

This might interest you. I'm going to enlist Sarah to help me with my little project.

Sarah she's hot Jerry but she'll never agree to help you with anything. I mean she's a real ice queen and I've never seen her agree to help anyone do anything without a direct order from the boss.

True enough but you see Ozzie I know some things about her that you don't.

Really? Come on spill Jerry, you know I hate all this suspense bullshit.

OK, OK give me a chance. You see Sarah has hidden from the company that she's a flaming dyke. You see are dear coworker is a closet homme and she has a secret girlfriend on the side. So when I ask her to help me with Jocelyn, Sarah will jump all over it. She will enjoy the idea of secretly getting her hooks into another stunning girl and she will figure that in the end she will be able to double-cross me and take Jocelyn for herself.

So how does that help you if she ends up with Josie in the end?

Oh she won't Ozzie, she thinks no one knows about her girlfriend on the side. When she gets ready to make her move for my girl we'll have a little chat about what will happen when Sindan finds out about her hidden relationship. Faced with the prospect of having to give up her sidepiece to some exec who wants a new domestic and a complete sexual reorientation for herself she will do anything I say to keep things quiet.

Jerry you scare me man, you are just too good at this stabbing people in the back shit.

Wow Jerry, there really nice, but how are you doing this?

Doing what Jocelyn and aren't you forgetting.

I'm sorry, I mean Jeremy, and you know what I mean you were the only available person in my selection pool yesterday and it was only Tuesday.

Like I said Jocelyn it must be fate. It would be best for everybody well at least for you if you stopped questioning it and just went with it. Just think of it like this what is meant to be will be and fighting it makes the journey more unpleasant but you still end up in the same place in the end.

Jeremy why are you doing this? I mean you don't want to sleep with me and you know that I really like sleeping with guys. Don't get me wrong you're a nice guy and I would certainly fuck you if that's what you wanted but we just don't seem right for each other.

Of course I want to make love with you Jocelyn but not until you are ready. You have been totally out of control and all of this promiscuity and wantonness is you subconsciously crying out for help.

Jeremy I like to fuck really that is all there is to it. I really enjoy sex and sexual variety in my partners.

See Jocelyn that's my point exactly, the things you think you want are not healthy. You don't even know it but what you really want, no what you really need is someone to set boundaries for you. Someone to take you in hand and establish the limits that will result in the more satisfying existence that you don't even realize is out there for you.

Oh my god Jeremy you can't own me. I'm sorry but I've got to go.

Yes I can Jocelyn and in time you will come to accept it.

Josie thanks for the show today, but you still got another negative review after I warned you and a little eye candy is not going to get it done.

I know boss and I tried but you've got to help me. This Jerry guy, I asked around and he's in IT, he's doing something to the dating system so I can only date him.

So make him happy girl, that will make us all happy and then he'll probably go away.

That's just it boss, he scares me. He keeps talking about how we're fated to be together and I think he wants to own me sir. He said I need limits and some man, him of course, to be in charge so I only do healthy behavior.

OK Josie, this does sound more serious than what I was thinking you're off the hook for last night and I will look into why he keeps coming up as your date. If you do have to go on another date with him though you have to make him happy or I will have to take some action.

Please sir you know me if he would just let me fuck him everything would be fine but I never know what he is going to do or make me do to get a satisfactory.

I'm sorry Josie but it will be out of my hands, I have to follow policy too. Now we have to get to work.

Mr. Devereaux. Lewis here and I have a situation with my secretary sir. I would really appreciate it if you could look into it for me.

Really Lewis your having problems with your secretary and you need me to fix them for you.

No sir, let me explain. You see it's the new SH App, Jocelyn is a bit, hell she's a really big slut and she really loved the new system the first couple of times. Now she didn't have to do all her fucking on the weekends, but after that she can only get dates with this one guy from IT and he's giving her a really hard time. She's offered to sleep with him but apparently that's not enough. We've got a really big project on our plate sir and this is having a negative effect on her performance.

OK, Lewis this does sound a little fishy I'll look into it and get back to you.

Thank you sir.

Hi Cynthia could you tell Mr. Devereaux that Clark from IT is on the line for him.

Clark thanks for getting back to me so promptly did you find out anything.

Yes sir, it's one of my boys all right. A Jeremy Stokely and he has hacked into the system and is using various conditions to create situations where this Jocelyn Clutter has no option but to date him. It's quite ingenious actually to anyone monitoring the App it just looks as though she is voluntarily picking him if he is available. We've found how he got in and we're ready to shut him down and close the holes. How hard do you want me to slam him sir.

I've read her profile Clark have you looked at her pic? You certainly can't fault him on his taste.

No sir, so I can let him off with a rap on the knuckles?

Here's what we're going to do. Don't close down his access yet and keep all of this to yourself. Now that you know it's there you can watch to see if anyone else tries to do this and close them down can't you.

Yes sir, but we're really going to need to close this vulnerability to protect the integrity of the App.

I understand and don't worry as soon as this is over that's what you'll do. Right now however I am intrigued and I want to let this play out. I really want to see what Mr. Stokely has in mind for the lovely Miss Clutter if it had just been some sex this would have all been over by now so let's see just what his game is.

Very good sir, just let me know if you want to intervene and when I can close the hole.

Ah Miss Clutter, can you tell your boss that Mr. Devereaux wishes to see him in my office.

Lewis good of you to come up about that matter with your secretary. I had IT look into it and they can't find anything amiss it would appear that Jocelyn and her beau are having one of those improbable runs of luck.

Well thank you for looking into it sir.

No problem, however let me caution you that being on a date with someone who isn't your first pick is no excuse for being an unsatisfactory companion and if work suffers you are expected to take steps to correct it as you would with any substandard performance.

Hello Jeremy, I'm sorry about leaving last time but you scared me with all that talk about limits and control.

It is alright Jocelyn I understand that this is going to be a process and I don't expect you to realize your full potential overnight. We will have to work together and it will be hard and sometimes painful but I have faith that under my guidance you will blossom into the perfect prize that is inside you.

Um uh sure we can work on what you want.

Come on let's go.

Jeremy this is nice are you ready to make love to me.

Always so impatient to have sex Jocelyn, you will learn to let your partner take the lead. I should always set the pace and you should conform, only in that way can you make me supremely happy which will lead to our happiness as a couple. Now this is not to say that you won't be able to surprise pleasantly with offers or suggestions, but you will need to know me much better for that to work. You are right about one thing though tonight it is time that I should see the complete package. An artist should know the true shape and texture of his canvas if he is going to create a masterpiece.

Fine Jeremy I will be glad to strip for you and who knows maybe this will go further than you think.

I know Jocelyn now let me get a good look. You are a truly magnificent animal and with proper shaping you will become a superb mate. You have done well tonight Jocelyn and with this kind of effort things can go well, unfortunately I am still going to have to give you a bad review mostly for the last time.

Please Jeremy I did what you wanted and I won't have any reason to work with you if I still get bad dates.

Don't despair you can earn a good review next time, but you weren't really punished for last time. Oh and Jocelyn I'm going to let it go this time but never threaten me again.

Jocelyn, I thought I was very clear about this.

You were sir, I tried and the date went well I thought he even had me strip for him but at the end he said I hadn't been punished enough for last time so here we are sir.

It's certainly been a long time since we had to do this, but I'm sure you still remember the drill Josie. Over the desk and don't lose count or I will have to start over.

Please sir it's not my fault and you said you were going to look into it.

I did, there is nothing wrong with the system everything is working properly.

Jocelyn I'm waiting I was thinking a dozen but now at least 2. I can see where I've maybe been too lenient with you the way your acting now.

No sir I'll do it, I just it hurts so bad and you know I am not into pain at all.

Last chance to avoid 3 dozen, assume the position right now.

Yes sir, here see I'm ready.

Agggh... one sir.

Yeeooow... two sir.

OK that's it go clean yourself up and no more bad dates or it will just get worse.

Yes sir, sob, I'll be good.

Get that blubbering under control and be ready to dive into the project when you return Josie.

Hi you're Jocelyn right?

Excuse me do I know you.

No I'm Sarah, and I work with a guy named Jerry Stokely and I saw your picture on his computer and heard him talking about you with one of his creepy friends.

Um look maybe we shouldn't...

No it's OK really I just wanted to warn you to be careful Jerry's a real creep and I think he's obsessed with you.

Oh god he is I've told my boss and he looked into it but they say everything's OK.

What do you mean?

The dating App you know the one for the Corporate Companion Program Jeremy is the only one it will let me date.

I'm not surprised I'm telling you he's a real creep.

Will you come talk to my boss with me it would help to have someone verify my story.

No, I'm not getting into anything with the bosses, bad things can happen to girls who complain and our boss really likes Jerry. Besides he was just talking about how much he liked you and that you were worth all the trouble you were putting him through, they never said anything about the SH App.

Please help me, he's really scaring me and he already caused me to counseled by my boss.

I noticed you were sitting a little gingerly there. What's he doing forcing you to fuck him.

No he hasn't even really touched me, but he made me tell him all these really personal things about myself. Now he keeps talking about what a slut I am and how he is going to turn me into his perfect mate.

I'd be scared too, tell you what I'll keep my eyes open and if I find anything that will help you I'll let you know.

Listen Jerry you know why I'm doing this, the girl is hot and you offered me a way to get a piece. Don't think this makes us friends or allies. Yes, I talked to her and she already trusts me, you were right about that the girl is naïve.

Good draw her in be her best friend and I'll tell you when you can use her to satisfy yourself.

Don't make me wait too long Jerry or I might lose control and have to take her for myself.

Be patient Sarah, if you try to move on her prematurely you'll destroy her trust before she's ready to submit to you and then you won't ever be able to enjoy her.

We'll play it your way for now.

Good, for now strengthen her bond to you.

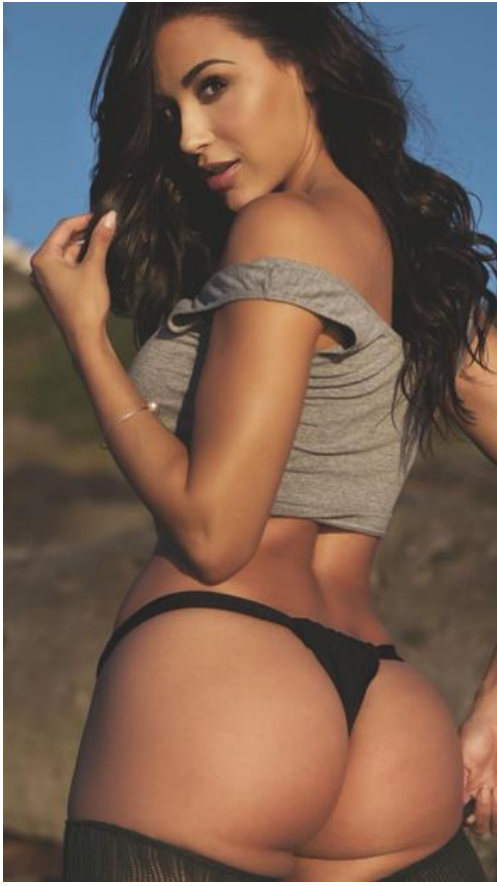

I don't know if I can all she wants is for me to get her dirt on you.

Tell her that you think you might have something but it's going to take time to investigate it. You need her to keep me busy so you can try to break into my workstation. She should try to date me more often than the program requires and do whatever it takes to keep my interest. Encourage her to go along with whatever I tell her to do no matter how much she doesn't want to every time you talk to her your closer to the evidence she needs.

Your definitely a sick dude but I've got to admit in the case I like it after all I've always been a sick bitch. What I don't hear though is my payoff Jerry I'm not doing this to help you out.

I can use this to push her along the path far enough that it will be too late for her to try and back out. Once she's there I'll have you tell her that you've got the evidence. Have come over to your place to get it use her anyway you want and let her know that it doesn't exist.

OK now fuck off and get the hell away from my work area.

Jeremy please can we go. I've done things in public places before but it was always covert where the people around you couldn't really tell what you were doing.

I know this makes you uncomfortable Jocelyn, but that's the point. You need to realize that your comfort isn't important, your whole focus needs to be on what I want. You will be the perfect wife Jocelyn part of which is enduring anything if it brings the slightest pleasure to your husband.

Please Jeremy that's not a marriage what you're describing is slavery.

Jocelyn when marriage originated it was slavery. As recently as 19th century England upon marriage all the assets of the woman became the mans property and if there was a divorce he retained everything including children.

But we don't live in 19th century England Jeremy and slavery is illegal.

Yes but society is starting to adopt a more realistic and natural position with regards to the place of women and the rights and obligations they have.

Ah here we are go ahead and strip Jocelyn. Good girl, I must say that I am heartened by all of the progress you have been making lately. Once we get past your annoying tendency to argue about assuming the subservient role in the relationship based on all these antiquated ideas you have, it won't be long before we can become more intimate.

Jeremy we could be more intimate now, I'll make love with you and even see you from time to time. I'll make it very good for you I promise, there is no reason we can't both have what we want.

Except that isn't what I want Jocelyn. You are going to be a proper wife to me when the time is right and we will do whatever it takes to make that happen.

Sarah look at this shit do you believe it.

My god Josie you're right Jerry is such a freak.

I know if it wasn't for the CCP this shit would be too funny for words. The only reason I don't laugh right in his face when he starts up with all his bullshit about a wife's place is because he's serious and it's scaring the hell out of me.

You hang in there girl we're going to bring him down.

I want to believe you Sarah but you haven't found anything and it keeps getting worse and worse. He still won't fuck me but now he makes me strip as soon as we get to his place and our last "date" he made me take a walk with him in this green space wearing only a crop top, stockings and a thong. It was so humiliating my ass was hanging out there in plain sight of everyone who came along.

I'm sorry it's taking so long but I have to be really careful Josie. I'm pretty sure I know how to take him down but if I tip him off before everything is ready then it all goes away and you may never get out from under his thumb unless you quit.

No that is definitely not an option, I had a cousin who couldn't get on with one of the corporations and she ended up turning tricks out on the street. After a few months some pimp got ahold of her and she started spending a fair amount of time in hospital emergency rooms. It was only a couple of years after that when she ODeD. In short this may be a nightmare but there is no way I'm going to end up like Betty used up and dead at 27.

I'm so sorry Josie and you're right the company jobs are too hard to come by, maybe you could get someone else to marry you.

None of the older guys has shown any interest and the young studs are too busy sampling the wide variety that is available in today's society to bother with marriage. Besides I know my lifestyle hasn't made me the most attractive catch out there but I just can't help it sex is so much fun and men are so yummy.

What about women Josie maybe that would solve your problems most of the execs don't mind having a wife who was involved with everybody else's wives at one time.

Women just don't do it for me Sarah, in fact the whole idea is kind of icky, besides you know how much trouble you can get in if it's unsanctioned. They may not mind as much but they're vicious if they think someone's being a dyke without their approval and control.

Jocelyn you're looking quite lovely today. May I ask why you took off your clothes dear?

Isn't this what you want? You've made me strip the last two dates as soon as we got to your place.

It is indeed girl I just want you to realize that you're learning and becoming more compliant. You need to be able to anticipate my needs and desires, sometimes you may guess wrong and have to be corrected but you still need to try anyway.

Why are you making this so hard.

The best things in life require effort and sacrifice Jocelyn, you need to stop worrying about how hard this is and just focus on the goal.

What do you want tonight Jeremy?

I think tonight it is time for you to show me how you pleasure yourself.

This is... it's too much can't I just pleasure you instead.

Jocelyn do as your told or deal with your boss.

No look I'm doing it please no more unsatisfactory reviews.

Good girl, Jocelyn. No keep your eyes open and look at me. I should always be in your thoughts when you are in use, even if I have you with someone else it should still be me you are focused on always me.

Can I stop now, please?

No go to completion and then ask if you can stop.

Mr. Devereaux are you sure that there isn't something going on with the App. This IT guy is really making my secretary unhappy and she's pretty much happy with any guy usually.

Listen Lewis we have already discussed this and the matter is closed. In fact you let that Clutter girl know that if she keeps bringing it up with you there will be consequences. Frankly Lewis you seem to have an unhealthy attachment to this girl and continued efforts on your part to intercede for her could have negative repercussions for you.

I'm sorry sir, I don't know what I was thinking consider the matter closed.

Glad to hear it Lewis and don't worry if Clutter finds herself unable to continue as your secretary due to changing circumstances I will personally see to it that your replacement is interesting and aesthetically in the same range.

Thank you sir.

Jocelyn I really want to bear down and finish up the project this week.

It shouldn't be a problem sir, I've got those figures for you here. Sir if I could take a minute and talk to you about Jeremy.

No Jocelyn you can't, your dating complications are your own and there is no room to be wasting company time on them. Unless you have some story about how good you got fucked like we used to share there will be no more discussion of your personal life in this office. Is that perfectly clear?

Yes sir... I'm sorry if, um please can I have a moment.

You can have the time it takes you to walk to the deli and get us some lunch. I want the corn beef on rye light on the mustard and make sure to get me one of those big pickles.

Yes sir Mr. Lewis.

So then, I finally came, it took forever just staring at his face and then when I asked him if I could quit he made me cum 2 more times. It's really scary by the time he let me quit I was getting used to seeing his face when I came how can he do that to me.

I know girl but you just have to go with it. I swear to you another couple weeks 4 at most and we can put an end to this. Until then you have to keep up your part Josie, you have to keep him happy so I can have a clear field.

I know, I'm just afraid of what he's doing to me and where this will all end up.

Don't worry girl you're stronger than you think. It may seem like he's getting some kind of control over you but as soon as I get him off your back it will evaporate like a bad dream so you have to hang in there and the more he thinks he's succeeding the better for us.

You're right Sarah, it just seems like I'm losing parts of myself I may not be able to get back. Somehow he even got to my boss, he won't even let me talk about what's going on to him now and won't try to help me at all. I tried to talk to him and he threatened me. He said if I brought it up again he would punish me, then he just sent me out to get lunch like everything was normal and nothing at all strange was going on. Sarah before this he only ever disciplined me twice and that was in the first two weeks I worked for him. How can Jeremy have so much power.

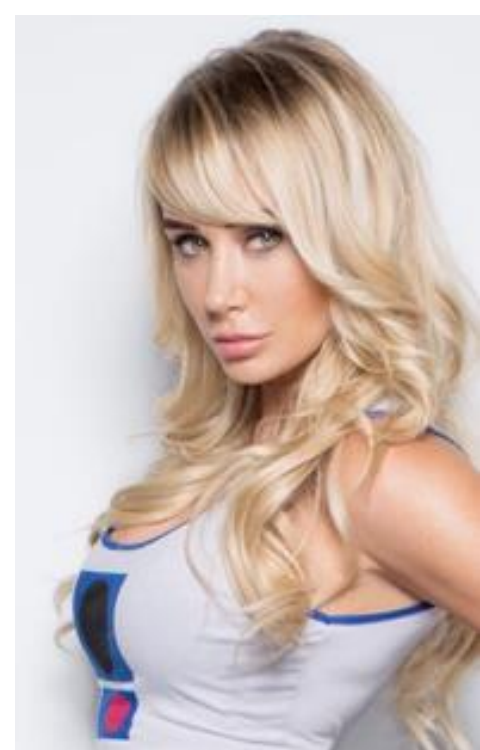

You never know what's going on behind the scenes in the company Josie. Keep your head down and let me handle this everything will go back to normal after I tie a can to him.

I feel like I don't even know what normal is anymore.

Tell you what girl, you said that this big project will be done by Friday right.

Yes.

Then go out this weekend find a guy like you used to. Jeremy will never know and you will feel more like your old self after some wild no strings attached fucking.

Look I did what you wanted she's going to go out and bang some anonymous guy this weekend. Which makes no sense Jerry, why in the hell do you want the girl your after out banging strangers from the meat market.

Sarah it's not your job to worry about my plans do what your told and let me worry about the rest.

Listen creep I'm not some easily manipulated little doll like Josie. She may be some nice juicy low hanging fruit just waiting for someone to come along and pluck her but you try that shit with me and you're going to get burned asshole.

Duly noted Sarah. Is there anything else you need to tell about Jocelyn?

I think maybe you should back off a little Jerry. She's thinking about quitting Sindan and if she does that your little game is over.

Thanks for telling me Sarah I will have to take that into consideration. It's almost time for you to be able to have your way with her. I'm sure your looking forward to that.

Of course I am. I wouldn't be playing this stupid game of yours otherwise.

Man Jerry even I can tell she's getting ready to screw you.

I know Ozzie, she thinks she has a way to get Jocelyn out from under and that she will submit to her out of gratitude and before she knows it Sarah will have an iron grip on her and it will be too late. Remember what I told you though, Sarah's about to find out that she's on a very short leash.

I'm still worried that corporate's going to find out what you've been doing and it's going to blow up in our face.

You can stop worrying Ozzie they already know.

Shit man are they going to fire you.

No I had a very interesting conversation with an exec named Devereaux the other day. He warned me that I better not try this with anyone else and I was going to help the Mingle people close the loophole when I was done but he gave me the green light to finish my plan with Jocelyn. He did say there would be consequences if all this resulted in her quitting the firm but I know Sarah was just blowing smoke there Jocelyn will never quit you see there was this cousin...

Jocelyn did you have a nice weekend?

Well you know how it is when work requires you to put in extra hours Jeremy.

That's funny because I understand that your boss presented that project you were working on at a special dinner that was set up Friday night for the department heads.

Um... yes we uh finished but...

Stop Jocelyn, your lying has already earned you a bad review so don't make it worse. Now here take this toy I bought you.

You got me a...

That's right and I want you to start using it right now. There you go eyes on me that's right and before you ask at least 3 orgasms and we'll wait for the first one...

Good girl now I don't, no keep going, think you'll be able to focus enough to lie convincingly so just tell the truth Jocelyn. What were you doing this weekend.

Oh god I unh, I went out with some friends and partied.

Did you end up fucking some guy.

Yes OK I'm sorry but it had been so long and I needed a cock, you won't fuck me.

I'm very disappointed with you Jocelyn and we had been making so much progress.

Please don't give me a bad review, I'm really... oh god unnnh... sorry Jeremy.

Good girl keep going, I know you're just a girl and it's hard so maybe I can compromise.

Yes any...thing I'll do... unh... please just.

OK. You can wear this when we're not together now just oh lets say 3 more...

Very nice Sarah, all dolled up for your big night with Jocelyn I see.

OK Jerry time to stop the charade. Yes I'm going to meet her tonight but to give her a way to be free of you. You pathetic loser you really thought I was going to help you pluck this delightful peach for yourself. After tonight Josie will be well on her way to being my little pet for the foreseeable future.

Really Sarah so just how are you going to accomplish all of this.

Not a problem Jerry I've already had someone arrange for Josie to get a job with another firm and poof your control is gone and between her gratitude for saving her from a creep and a loser and my influence over her new job she will soon be whatever I want her to be.

Oh yes of course, you're delightful little Penny and that two bit law firm.

How did you, wait...

I've already talked to a Mr. Harden and it seems Penny can't get anyone a job and is in fact unemployed herself. Now unless you want Sindan to be taking similar action with regards to you, you'll follow the plan.

You got Penny fired you asshole...

Be careful Sarah make me too mad and I might just let Sindan know what you've been up to anyway and find another way to complete this phase of my Jocelyn plan.

No you can't you promised you wouldn't tell...

Just go do your part and forget about Jocelyn after tonight do you understand?

OK I'll do it just don't tell...

Oh and Sarah, something less virginal I think, after all you are going to rape her and take these keys, you're going to need them.

Wow Sarah that's um not the look I expected for the movies, you look like your ready to eat some poor guy alive.

Look who's talking Miss crop top.

Well you never know when some cute guy might pop up. Although it's not like I can do anything about it now.

Why what's wrong?

Nothing, forget about it.

No tell me, did Jerry do something else. He's such a douchebag.

It's too embarrassing let's just go.

Well actually we're not going anywhere. Umph...

God that hurt why did you hit me.

Get your clothes off now or I'll hurt you a lot worse than that.

Sarah what's... no wait I'm getting them off see you don't have to hit me again.

Now bend over and get ready for the ride of your life girl. I guarantee you no guy ever rocked your world like I'm going to.

Please don't Sarah I don't... ahh... I'm not...

*Shut up and take it bitch. Unh, unh, unh...
This is all bitches like you are really good for.*

It hurts, I'm dry, you're tearing... oh shit... I thought you were my friend...

Good girl, Jocelyn easy access clothing with no underwear, you surpass my greatest hopes. You even found the keys and removed your keeper for me.

Please Jeremy I've done all that you wanted can't this just be over. I can't go on like this.

Yes I understand, Sarah came to me after she had you and confessed what she had done. Don't worry I will see that she pays for taking liberties with my betrothed.

What do you mean, you haven't...

Shh... It's all arranged dear. I have gotten permission to take some time off for the honeymoon and the company has given me a promotion fitting for a man with a brand new stay at home wife.

But Jeremy you can't just...

What do you mean I can't, Jocelyn are you refusing me.

No, of course not but I won't have a job how will...

Stop trying to figure things out dear. From now on that will be my job, you can see how well trying to run your own life has gone so far. After Sarah you should certainly be able to see the dangers of being on your own and how poor a judge you are of other people and their motives.

I, yes I guess you're right Jeremy but it...

Stop Jocelyn, I gave up your apartment for you and a crew is boxing up your things to bring them over after we get back we can go through them and see what needs to go. Here take this ointment, I know you must be sore after your adventure in lesbian rape but you will be accommodating me after the ceremony tomorrow.

Yes Jeremy of course I will let you.

Go rest dear we're off in the morning.

Do you Jocelyn Clutter take this man Jeremy Hickock to be your lawfully wedded husband. To love and cherish. To obey and serve. To perform as he desires both in pleasure and in pain. To receive his correction and bear his offspring. Having no other unless at his direction for all of the days that you are married.

I ... sob ... do.

Then by the powers vested in me and with the leave of the Sindan Corporation I now pronounce you man and wife. You may use her as you will.

Finally Jocelyn I know it was as hard for you to wait as it was for me now off with that lovely gown.

Yes Jeremy I hope you approve it just didn't seem right to be nude under my gown on our wedding day.

No you have done perfectly my love. I know you must still be sore but I am unwilling to wait any longer besides as you vowed in pleasure and in pain.

Yes Jeremy, take me and finish what you started.

This is just the beginning Jocelyn. Ungh...

Ahh ... yes husband.

Hello Mr. Lewis I was told you needed to see me.

Yes you must be Sarah?

Yes sir can you tell me what this is about.

Oh personnel didn't inform you. Well your to start as my new secretary.

But sir I'm in IT.

Not after your relationship with a certain miss Penelope came to the attention of the company. You have been demoted to secretary effective immediately and since she was unemployed um, Penny I believe you call her, has been given a job in the mail room. Such a naughty girl Sarah, it seems Penny wasn't all that willing of partner and in fact is quite willing to perform any duties the company wishes to keep from being matched up with you again.

It wasn't like... I mean she did, well she was, but what is going to happen to me now.

Well as I said you will take up your duties with me today. There is some good news though, personnel tells me that you have been exempted from the Corporate Companion Program.

Thank you sir, I don't really care for men, I mean I'll do whatever I have to for you but...

Don't worry I only have sex with my wife, I know unfashionable in this day and age but well there you have it. Well there is a catch though in order to grant you an exemption personnel had to have an acceptable alternative for you. After work today you are to go down to IT and report to an Osgood Smith. He will be your new boyfriend and let me caution you it will be in your best interests to make him happy.

You can't have me, I mean that loser Ozzie...

Shall I tell personnel you are no longer interested in employment here?

No, I... I'll do as I'm told sir I'm afraid you'll have to show me what to do I've never done this kind of work before.

No worries my old secretary Jocelyn Clut... excuse me I mean Mrs. Jocelyn Hickock has volunteered to come in and show you the ropes.

Smile girls, I think we're going to have you put on a show for us later. See Ozzie I told you everything would work out for us.

You were right Jerry I certainly can't complain.

And Sarah is treating you right.

Yeah you can tell she doesn't always want to do things but in the end she sucks it up and makes sure I have a good time. You sure were right about that crop and I only had to tell her boss she was unpleasant a couple of times.

I bet that got her attention. Jocelyn dear, could you see if our guest requires any refreshment.

Yes Jeremy, Mr Osgood can I get anything to drink for you?

A beer would be nice, thank you.

Ozzie you know what we talked about your OK with it.

Yeah, hell it sounds great and it will be good for her she's always a better ride when its been tenderized.

OK girls time for the show, Jocelyn you'll find the same strap on that she used on you in the bedroom and feel free to make sure she's dry dear just like you were when she used it on you.

The End
